

Postal services to certain destinations to resume

Hongkong Post today (July 2) announced that postal services to the destinations listed below will resume from tomorrow (July 3) as airlines are gradually scaling up their air traffic capacity and some postal administrations have resumed the acceptance of overseas mail. Notwithstanding this, postal operations of these destinations are still under the influence of the pandemic, and delays in mail delivery are expected.

Destinations		Service types available
Asia	India and the Philippines	All postal services (including Speedpost service)
Europe	United Kingdom	Speedpost service, e-Express and all surface mail postal services
	France, Poland, Spain and Switzerland	All postal services (including Speedpost service)
	Estonia	All airmail postal services (including Speedpost service)
