

Precautionary medical evacuation following a potential healthcare related exposure to Ebola

The UK government has worked with the NHS, the government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo (DRC) and international health partners to medically evacuate a humanitarian worker who has been treating patients with Ebola ...