

Precautionary recall of medication used for pain and inflammation due to incomplete patient information

Specific batches of Napralief 250mg Gastro-Resistant Tablets are being recalled because important safety and dosage information is missing from both the patient information leaflet and the outer carton.