

Press release: £1.6 billion investment brought forward to speed up vital water infrastructure projects

Projects worth over £1.6 billion of investment will tackle water pollution and increase resilience to drought