

Press release: £3 million boost for innovative local air quality improvements

Local authorities across England have received funding from the Air Quality Grant