

Press release: Aberdeen car dealer banned for seven years

Director of a car dealership and repair services has been banned for seven years after acting to the detriment of his customers and company creditors.