

Press release: Charity Commission inquiry into the Ghulam Mustafa Trust finds misconduct and mismanagement at the charity

Charity dissolved and one trustee disqualified following investigation involving offensive online posting and lack of financial control