

Press release: Consultation launched on next phase of bovine TB eradication strategy

The government has launched a consultation on measures to reach bovine TB-free status in England by 2038