

Press release: Employment Minister welcomes new record employment rate

New employment figures confirmed 2018 had the UK's strongest jobs market on record with latest figures showing more people in work than ever before.