

Press release: Flood warnings still in place across the country as recent wet weather subsides

The Environment Agency is warning that ongoing flooding impacts are likely to continue