

Press release: Government backs British farmers with new package of support

Prime Minister sets out new support for farmers to strengthen food security and grow the economy