

Press release: Government to boost 5G and simplify planning to support mobile deployment

£40 million is to be invested in 5G testbed and trial projects across UK industry as part of Government plans to improve mobile connectivity.