

Press release: Investigation launched into potential for bias in algorithmic decision-making in society

World-first Centre for Data Ethics and Innovation will partner with the Cabinet Office's Race Disparity Unit to explore potential for bias in crime and justice