

Press release: New £45 million Flood Defence Scheme for Shoreham Unveiled

The Environment Agency has officially opened over 7 kilometres of new river and sea defences in the coastal town of Shoreham, helping to keep the community safe from flooding from storms and rising sea levels.