

Press release: New government guidance encourages pesticides industry to prepare for EU exit

Businesses that produce pesticides will need to take different actions to be able to supply new pesticides to the UK and EU markets in the event of a no deal.