

Press release: New guidance on the movement of horses and other equines in a no deal scenario

The government has issued guidance for owners of equines on the preparations they need to make