

Press release: New measures protect animal welfare and increase woodland cover

The Government has announced proposals on new measures to enhance the welfare of animals and increase woodland cover.