

Press release: North East man fined for permit breach

A Teesside man has been fined following an investigation by the Environment Agency into an environmental permit breach at a motor vehicle site.