

Press release: On third anniversary of Tim Peake's space mission; report reveals over 2 million inspired by education campaign

A new report has found more than 2 million children in the UK engaged with education and outreach programmes linked to Tim Peake's Principia Mission to space.