

Press release: Operation Brock: ready for action

New measures that will improve Kent's resilience when services across the English Channel are disrupted will be ready for use from next week, Highways England announced today (Friday 22 March).