

Press release: Operation Brock – work to remove M20 contraflow starts tonight

A contraflow installed on the M20 in Kent as part of new resilience measures for people living, working and travelling in the county is to be deactivated, Highways England has confirmed today (Thursday 11 April).