

Press release: Riverbanks and watercourses to be planted with new woodland

New project to plant extensive woodlands along England's riverbanks launched to improve water quality, manage flood risk and boost biodiversity.