

Press release: SMEs to have easier access to government contracts with action plan to level playing field

The SME Action Plan will unlock opportunities for smaller businesses to access government contracts as part of a £35 million promise.