

Press release: Technical guidance note released following subsidence event

Coal Authority releases technical guidance note following subsidence event in north-east England.