

Press release: Thousands of trees to be planted in communities in boost to nature, health and wellbeing

Over £14 million will be available which allow both local authorities and community groups to access funds for new tree-planting projects