

Press release: Trade wins for Hamleys, Norton motorcycles and British farmers as Prime Minister Abe visits London

A series of new deals for British and Japanese companies, worth over £200 million has been announced today, during a visit by the Japanese Prime Minister