

Press release: Triumvirate of ministers to attend G7 Climate, Energy and Environment Ministerial hosted by Germany to push for accelerated action on climate and the clean energy transition

UK Government ministers will push the G7's leading economies to drive forward progress on climate change, biodiversity and the clean energy transition at this week's climate and environment ministerial.