

Press release: UK health team fly to Mozambique to help after Cyclone Idai

UK team of health and emergency response workers is flying to the region hit by Cyclone Idai today to help assess health needs following the disaster.