

Press release: UK trade with Canada up 14% since new free trade agreement introduced

New statistics released last week reveal that British businesses are benefiting from the increased ability to trade freely with Canada.