

Prime Minister puts local people in control of more than £1 billion with long-term plan for left-behind towns

Fifty five towns given £20 million endowment-style funds each over 10 years to invest in local people's priorities