

Public appeal for information on organised crime network

The SF0 is appealing for information from the public about a complex timeshare services scheme it believes was operated by an organised crime network.