

Press release: Highways England takes safety message to motorcyclists

Highways England is gearing up to promote motorcycle safety at one of the biggest events in the British motor-racing calendar.

Press release: Funding awarded to innovative data projects

Projects to highlight the safest roads for cyclists to use, create a database of all the UK's trees and launch an indoor mapping system backed by government.

Press release: UK drinks industry helps drive up British exports

Latest figures released this week show UK exports continue to go from strength to strength, reaching £639 billion in the year to February 2019.

Press release: Penny Mordaunt to pledge extra Cyclone Idai funding, as she issues stark climate warning

The International Development Secretary Penny Mordaunt will announce extra UK funding of up to £14 million to help deal with the impact of Cyclone Idai.

Press release: Sir Alan Duncan statement on Julian Assange

A statement from Minister of State for Europe and the Americas, Sir Alan Duncan.