

Press release: Legal services and LawTech bolstered with £2 million of government funding

Just over £2 million has been committed by the government to help embrace the opportunities of LawTech, drive innovation and help the UK legal sector grow.

Press release: People urged to practise safer sex after rise in STIs in England

New data from Public Health England show there were around 448,000 cases of sexually transmitted infections diagnosed in 2018, an increase of 5% from 2017.

People urged to practise safer sex after rise in STIs in England

New data from Public Health England show there were around 448,000 cases of sexually transmitted infections diagnosed in 2018, an increase of 5% from 2017.

Press release: Foreign Secretary statement on the 30th anniversary of Tiananmen Square

Foreign Secretary Jeremy Hunt statement on the 30th anniversary of the tragic events in and around Tiananmen Square.

Press release: Eid al-Fitr 2019: PM Theresa May's message

Prime Minister Theresa May's message on Eid al-Fitr.