

Public services put in your pocket with trial GOV.UK App launched today

A trial version of the GOV.UK App is to be available to download on smartphones today, putting public services in people's pocket to save them from wasting time on admin.