

Public urged to check immigration advisers are regulated

The campaign encourages the public to check that their immigration adviser is properly regulated before placing their trust in them.