

RAF personnel become first ever drone 'aces' during operations in the Middle East

Crack gunners from the RAF Regiment have become 'aces' for the first time, having blasted Iranian drones out of the sky during operations in the Middle East, protecting British interests, partners, and personnel in the regio...