

Rail passengers in the North to benefit from simpler fares and cheaper tickets thanks to public ownership

This initiative will expand the availability of advance rail tickets across publicly owned operators, to provide more options for people travelling across the North.