

Record £9.5 billion early years investment

Record £9.5 billion early years investment next year to help families access affordable childcare and boost growth by supporting parents back into work