

Recording of the week: Dungeons and Dragons' curious renaissance

This week's selection comes from Jowan Collier, Preservation Assistant. I have a confession. Every week or so, a few friends and I gather in a small living room to play Dungeons and Dragons. Or as the Dungeon Master's mother puts it, "to roll dice and pretend". My character's name is...