

Recording of the week: Things that go howl in the night public domain With Halloween creeping up on us, I asked our wildlife curator to share with me her favourite spooky sounds. I've heard screeching barn owls. Hissing rattlesnakes. My favourite though: the chorus of howling wolves, recorded in Ontario, Canada in 2000. Listen to howls of the Gray Wolf There's...