

Recording of the week: Voices of Partition

This week's post comes from Charlotte James, Web Content Developer for Unlocking Our Sound Heritage. In August 1947, Gurbakhsh Singh Garcha learned about the Partition of India over his uncle's radio. Gurbakhsh was a young boy living in a small village north of Delhi when officials announced that British India...