

Recruitment for 5 new members of the Animals in Science Committee

We are seeking new members to advise government and help maintain the highest standards in the welfare of animals used in research.