

Reforms to bolster flood protection for communities across the country

Delivering on the government's Plan for Change, proposals will introduce a simplified approach benefitting poorer communities and speeding up project delivery