

Regulator announces next charities to be investigated as part of inquiry connected to company cashing cheques

The Charity Commission has announced the next 12 charities entering a class inquiry it opened in May 2025.