

Regulator axed as red tape is slashed to boost growth

Regulation will be cut back as the Prime Minister sets out his latest steps to drive economic growth that puts more money in working people's pockets.