

Regulator concludes case into Sentebale

The Charity Commission has concluded its compliance case into Sentebale, a charity which works with children and young people in Southern Africa.