

Regulator issues Official Warning to charity and disqualifies trustee over inflammatory social media activity

A charity set up to support Palestinian refugees, particularly in Lebanon, has been issued with an Official Warning after posting “divisive and inflammatory” political material on social media.