

Remaining quotas for Bun Scrambling Competition in Cheung Chau open for enrolment

The finale of the 2025 Bun Carnival at Cheung Chau, the Bun Scrambling Competition, will be held on May 5. The registration procedures have been completed with limited entry quotas available, which has been announced today (March 12) on the SmartPLAY website (www.smartplay.lcsd.gov.hk/home), the mobile app (My SmartPLAY) and Smart Self-service Stations for open enrolment from 8.30am tomorrow (March 13) on a first-come, first-served basis.

Physically fit persons aged 18 or above who are interested in the competition can enroll via the SmartPLAY website, the mobile app (My SmartPLAY) or Smart Self-service Stations on or before March 17. SmartPLAY users may also complete the enrolment procedures at District Leisure Services Offices or leisure venues with SmartPLAY booking offices.

The final selection exercise, to be held on April 13, will consist of two rounds. Twenty-four contestants recording the shortest time in the preliminary round (including no fewer than six female participants) will be eligible to enter the semi-final on the same day to compete for 12 finalist places (including no fewer than three female participants). The 12 finalists will enter the Bun Scrambling Final to be held from 11.30pm on May 5 to 12.45am on May 6. Trophies will be awarded to the champion as well as the first and second runners-up in the men's division, and to the champion in the women's division. The contestant who bags the highest number of buns within the time limit will be the prize winner of "Full Pockets of Lucky Buns".

To acknowledge the outstanding achievements of the winners and enhance the appeal of the event, any male or female athlete who has been the champion for three times in the Bun Scrambling Competition since 2016 will be the "King of Kings" or the "Queen of Queens" of the competition and be awarded a trophy.

All selected applicants are required to complete the safety training sessions on bun tower climbing and prevention of falls on April 6 to be eligible for the competition. Details are provided in the prospectus available at the SmartPLAY website, the mobile app (My SmartPLAY) and the 2025 Bun Carnival dedicated website (www.lcsd.gov.hk/en/bun/index.html).

The 2025 Bun Carnival is jointly organised by the Hong Kong Cheung Chau Bun Festival Committee and the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD). Besides the Bun Scrambling Competition, the Bun Tower Climbing Team Relay will be held on April 27 morning. Local tertiary institutions, government departments, public utilities and commercial and industrial organisations will be invited to take part in the relay. Members of the public are welcome to watch the sport on-site and cheer for the contestants.

At the Climbing Carnival to be held in the afternoon on the same day, there will be a bun tower climbing fun day, game stalls, handicraft-making activities and variety shows. A Wishing Bun Tower will also be set up and the winning entries of the Student Drawing Competitions will be displayed. Members of the public are welcome to attend the carnival.

For enquiries, please contact the Islands District Leisure Services Office of the LCSD at 2852 3220, or visit the 2025 Bun Carnival dedicated website.