

Remarks by SCST at media session

Following are the remarks by the Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism, Miss Rosanna Law, at a media session after attending the LIV Golf Hong Kong 2025 this afternoon (March 9):

Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism: I just got in but it is already very positive vibe today. I am glad that the weather is good. I think when I see all the faces of the audience around, they are very happy, enjoying themselves obviously. It is something very different from what I used to have for a formal tournament. It's so proper and serious but here you have a fun vibe and everything is so relaxed. I think this is what tourism and entertainment ought to be.

Reporter: 香港文化、體育及旅遊局局長，你剛才在LIV Golf Hong Kong 2025的媒體見面會上，看到現場的氣氛，覺得很有趣，因為它跟一般的正式比賽不太一樣，既專業又輕鬆，這正是旅遊和娛樂業應該有的樣子。

Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism: We are working very closely and seriously with the organiser of LIV Golf. Our objective is to work out a long-term partnership with them. So that they can bring back this wonderful event year after year.

Reporter: So, you are working a particular timescale?

Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism: We are very close to agreeing on something but we are still working on it. If we are talking about a timeframe, of course, we want it to be pretty assuring.

Reporter: 局長，你們跟LIV Golf的組織方合作，預計什麼時候能有具體的協議呢？

Secretary for Culture, Sports and Tourism: Let's work on the details and I think the partnership and intention of both sides to clinch the deal is strong.
