

Repairs underway as Environment Agency begins fixing damaged flood banks

Environment Agency teams are working to repair banks and defences damaged by more than twice the average autumn rainfall.